

Wedding Information

Your wedding is a very special day and I can help to make it special by providing beautiful music to enhance your wedding ceremony. For the ceremony, I can sing as a soloist, or lead the hymns, or both. I can arrange vocal quartets and various instrumentalists as you may require. I can also arrange an Organist as required.

I specialise in singing religious solos and motets, but am equally at home singing songs such as pop or folk songs (particularly Irish folk songs)* and I have lots of experience helping couples choose the perfect music for the ceremony.
